Heads of Depts at Bangalore are explained in paras 3 and 4 of the Subn Note* dated 13-12-1943 a copy of which is placed* below as the main file is put up in CB file bearing No 1608 relating to a representation from Mr K Seshagiri Rao Asst Comr doing duty as City Magistrate Bangalore which is submitted separately The reasons put forth in that connection are that the conditions of life particularly in Bangalore have become harder, the work be attended to by the Secretariat and other Headquarters officers has become more strenuous exacting and responsible that some of the Asst Comrs holding appointments the Food Supplies Dept were in receipt allowances and that Asst Comrs in charge of the Subns and Treasuries, officers drafted to the Secretariat have to incur extra expenses by reason of having to hire in the city unlike

9. I have already noted in a similar file that the question of reconsideration of the case of non-civilians does not arise. On the other hand, there is little justification for such an allowance in the case of civilians. I therefore suggest that the allowance to civilians, who are entrusted with the same work as non-civilians, may be withdrawn.

10 The decision taken at the Council meeting on 22.10.46 need not be reopened at present.

The Non-Civil Service Assistant Secretaries to Governmen that is to sav the Assistant Secretaries who have been promote from the ranks in the Secretariat. beg leave to submit the following for your sympathetic consideration.-

1. The Civil Service Assistant Secretaries to Government, who are 5 in number, have been granted a Duty Allowance of Rs.50/- per mensem since 1943.

P.60 18.11.47 Chief Secretary) RCA 18/11/47

2. Subsequently this allowance has been extended to 4 more Assistant Secretaries who have been drawn from the Judicial Education, Public Works and Railway Departments

3. The Non-Civil Service Assistant Secretaries, however, have not been granted this allowance and their request for the same has been in vain.

CS 18/11 (For a note) MP Mem 19/11

4. In the net result, of the 16 Assistant Secretaries to Government 9 have been granted a Duty Allowance whi e the remaining 7 have been denied it.

5. There does not seem to be any reasor for making any differentiation among Assistant Secretaries between those who belong to the Non-Civil Service and those who belong to the Civil Service and the other Departments The duties and responsibilities of a Non-Civil Service Assistant Secretary are no less exacting or onerous than that of a Civil Service Assistant Secretary, and as a matter of fact the former class of officials has greater experience of Secretariat work acquired over a long period of service in the Secretariat itself than an Assistant Secretary belonging to the Civil Service or drafted from the other Departments. Conditions of life in Bangalore are also the same for both classes of officials.

6. It may not be out of place if it is mentioned here that some of the Civil Service Assistant Secretaries who were drawing or are now drawing such allowances are those who have risen from the ranks of the Secretariat or have been the
